Video USA is officially opened as a new business in Heber City by Jim Wright, manager of KLVY. Jim represented the Wasatch County

Manager for Video USA and Juanita Giles, Heber store manager and Lonnie Casper, assistant manager.

The new video outlet, which opened on May 4th, with a selection of over 1100 movies that are available for the residents of the community.

Curtis stated that, "at the present time there are 5 to 15 new movies arriving each week to add to the selection that available." He also noted that the number of new movies arriving would reach as high as 30 a week after the store was established. The new movies coming in would reflect the peoples choice of entertainment.

The selection of Heber City as a site for a new Video USA outlet was based on the current population and the potential for growth in the area.
